DEPARTMENT OF THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL

"LAND REGISTRY ACT"

WHEREAS the "Estate Tax Act," chapter 29 of the Statutes of Canada, 1958, which came into force on January 1st, 1959, provides that an estate tax shall be paid upon the aggregate taxable value of all property passing on the death, at any time after the coming into force of the Act, of every person domiciled in Canada at the time of his death:

And whereas the Act also provides that any amount payable as tax, interest, or penalties by a person as the successor to any property passing on the death of a deceased shall, where the property to which that person is the successor includes any estate or interest in land situated in Canada, be and continue to be for as long as that amount or any part thereof remains unpaid a lien upon such estate or interest in favour of Her Majesty:

And whereas the Act further provides that the consent of the Minister to the transfer of any land or any estate or interest therein upon which a lien exists shall be deemed to discharge such lien:

And whereas the Act, by its provision for a lien without notice by way of caution or caveat, puts a heavy burden on the whole Torrens system and on solicitors and others who, quite properly under the Torrens system, expect to find the register telling the whole story:

Therefore, His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to order that, under the provisions of section 257 of the "Land Registry Act," chapter 171 of the "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1948," the following rule be made:—

"Where a transmission occurs consequent upon a death that occurs on or after the first day of January, 1959, no application for the registration of a fee-simple, or a charge, or a release of a charge affecting any land or charge that is the subject of the transmission, shall be accepted unless there has been filed in the Land Registry Office in which the title to the property affected is registered a consent to the transfer of the property or a certificate of discharge duly issued under the 'Estate Tax Act' of Canada."

Acting Attorney-General.
